

The background of the entire page is a photograph of two hands shaking in a firm grip, symbolizing a business deal or agreement. Overlaid on this image are several semi-transparent, light blue icons of people in business attire (suits and ties). These icons are scattered across the upper and middle portions of the image, some appearing as if they are floating or part of a digital interface. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues and greys from the background image, with the light blue of the icons and the white of the text providing contrast.
