DEADLINE TO REGISTER

25 July 2024

OVERVIEW

“If you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.” Wayne Dyer

Having the right mindset is very important in helping us succeed in our life. In the journey of achieving success, self-awareness and self-analysis can significantly help us to understand why we do what we do and what we can change in ourselves to get more energy, respond better to others and efficiently interact with them and understand them.

This programme uses a variety of examples, case studies, example conversations and techniques to master a few competencies of success. Delegates explore topics such as, behaviour cycle, positive versus negative thinking, handling fear, motivation, power phrases and so on.

The programme contains numerous exercises that are designed to raise delegate's awareness and help them think about critical behaviours. The aim is to change the point of view of those who might have habitually used certain behaviours without realising the full effect of them when used on others. Awareness raising discussions and interactive exercises help delegates to significantly change their behaviour using simple yet powerful techniques.
